The August 16, 2009, meeting of MAsT Pacific Northwest was called to order at 10:00 a.m. at Leatherwoods (East of Salem, Oregon). There were approximately 60 members and guest in attendance. Each of the six chapters and prospective chapters from the Pacific Northwest were represented, along with a representative of the Santa Clara, California chapter.

Master Bob spoke briefly about MAsT International and about the growth of chapters in our region.

slave paul spoke briefly about the Portland chapters long-term goals and plans to work more closely with other chapters in the Pacific Northwest, and to continue to actively encourage our culture of diversity and inclusion.

Each of the chapter directors in attendance introduced themselves to the group and spoke about their particular chapter.

The remainder of the meeting consisted of break-out sessions by chapter, a sharing of each chapter's high points and challenges, a brief session of volunteer Doms and subs answering questions posed by attendees.

Throughout the meeting there were drawings for various prizes including free memberships to some of the chapters.

slave paul thanked Master Adak for His efforts to help plan the meeting and His role and meeting moderator.

The meeting concluded at 11:50 a.m.
